

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES OF THE SESSIONS;

AND OTHER INFORMATION CONNECTED WITH THE GENERAL BUSINESS OF THE COUNTY.

I.—THE HOLDING OF SESSIONS.

1. That the General Quarter Sessions do commence on the Tuesdays in the following weeks, being those appointed for the purpose by Statute.

viz.

Quarter Sessions, when to be held.
11 Geo. IV.,
and 1 Wm. IV.,
cap. 70.

In the first week after the 28th of December,
In the first week after the 31st of March,*
In the first week after the 24th of June, and
In the first week after the 11th of October.

* Note.—The time for holding the Spring Session may be altered by two Justices, to be appointed at the previous Epiphany Session, under the provisions of the Statute of 4 & 5 Wm. IV., cap. 47, so as to prevent their interference with the Spring Assizes: the time to be fixed on not to be earlier than the 7th March, nor later than the 22nd April. Notice of the time of holding to be advertised in the following Newspapers, viz.—The Bath Chronicle, The Bristol Times and Mirror, The Somerset County Gazette, and The Western Gazette and Flying Post.

2. The several General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, will be held at the respective places as follows, viz.:—

The Epiphany and Midsummer Sessions at Taunton, and
The Spring and Michaelmas Sessions at Wells.

Time and place of holding Sessions to be advertised.

3. That the Clerk of the Peace shall give public Notice of the time and place of holding each General Quarter Session, by advertisement in the before-mentioned Newspapers, at least two weeks before the time of holding the Sessions; and that he do also give Notice at the foot of the advertisement of any business to be considered on the first day of the Session, which is not part of the routine business of the Court.

*Time of attendance of Prosecutors
and Witnesses.*

4. That all Prosecutors who shall have Bills of Indictment to prefer, and all Witnesses, be in attendance at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of Tuesday the first day of the Session, to give instructions for the Bills to the Clerk of Indictments.

*Time of
Grand Jurors.*

5. That all persons summoned to serve as Grand Jurors, be in Court at 12 o'clock at noon on the first day of the Session, to answer to their names.

Time of attendance of Petty Jurors, Witnesses in Appeals, and others.

6. That all persons summoned to serve on the Petty Jury, and all Witnesses in any Appeal, and all other persons required to attend the Sessions, be ready in Court to answer to their names on the Wednesday morning, at Ten o'clock precisely.

II.—ORDER OF PROCEEDING ON THE FIRST DAY OF SESSIONS.

Time of opening Court, and business to be

7. That on the first day of each Quarter Session the Court be opened at 12 o'clock at noon, or as soon thereafter as two Justices shall be present,<sup>transacted on the first day of Sessions.</sup>

and proceed to business in the following order—
viz. :—

TO APPOINT A CHAIRMAN.

That when it shall appear to the Justices assembled on the first day of the Session, that the business likely to be brought before them renders it expedient, the Court shall appoint <sup>Division of Court, and business to be transacted therein.
21 & 22 Vic.,
cap. 73.</sup> two or more Justices (one of whom to be of the Quorum), with such other Justices of the County as shall think fit to sit with them, to form a second Court to hear and determine the following business which shall be referred to them—viz.

1. To hear all Motions (except Motions connected with the Calendar and Motions for the discharge of Fines on Jurymen.)
2. To hear Appeals.
3. To dispose of such Indictments as may go off for want of prosecution.
4. To try any Prisoners who may not have been tried in the Crown Court.

That the Sheriff's Process be delivered and his return verified on Oath.

That the Grand Jury be called and sworn.

That the Proclamation against Vice and Immorality, directed to be read at every Quarter Session, be read accordingly.

That the Charge to the Grand Jury be given, and that they do then withdraw to their room to consider the Bills submitted to them.

That the Court do then proceed to discuss and make Orders on all matters relating to the General Police and Civil concerns of the County, (to the consideration of which the first day is to be exclusively appropriated) the Chairman calling them on respectively according to the order in which they stand in the Agenda Paper, the Clerk of the Peace first reading the Record of the proceedings of the first day of the preceding Session relative to the business then under consideration, but whenever any communications shall be transmitted to the Court through the Chairman, or any of its Officers, by either of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or by either House of Parliament, or by the Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County, the consideration of such communications shall have precedence of all other business.

Orders and proceedings to be entered at length in a Ledger, and Agenda Paper
to be prepared.

8. That a Minute Book be kept by the Clerk of the Peace, wherein are to be registered all orders and proceedings, and that such orders and proceedings be transferred from the Minute Book to a Ledger, and exclusively appropriated to the purpose of entering them at length and as of Record, and that an Agenda Paper be prepared by him Quarterly, commencing with "Finance of the County," "Treasurer's Returns and Accounts," "Police," "Prisons," and then proceeding with the different other Items Alphabetically: and that the Clerk of the Peace do send a printed Copy of such Agenda Paper to each acting Magistrate of the County 14 days before each Session.

9. That whenever any matters shall be referred by the Court to the consideration of a Committee, any Report which they shall make to the Court on the matter referred to them, shall be in writing, and signed by one or more of them.

10. That no Motion, on any matter relative to County business not arising out of a Report either of Visiting Justices, or of a Committee, presented at the same Session, or of an Act of Parliament directing otherwise, shall be submitted at any Session, unless Notice thereof shall have been given in writing during the Session immediately preceding that at which such Motion is intended to be brought forward, or unless such Notice shall have been given at some previous Session, and the consideration thereof adjourned.

11. That whenever any business comes before the Court under the direction of some Act of Parliament, or when the Visitors of either Prison or a Committee of the Court shall state that some recommendation which they may make in their Report cannot be postponed without inconvenience, it shall be competent for the Court to decide the Question without Notice.

12. That as soon as the business of the day shall have terminated, the Court be adjourned to the following morning at such hour as the Court may determine at the time of adjournment.

III.—THE JUDICIAL BUSINESS.

1.—ORDER OF PROCEEDING.

Opening of Courts on second day of Session.

13. That on the second day of the Session, the Courts be opened pursuant to adjournment, and proceed to business as follows:

THE CROWN COURT.

Business in Crown Court.

To deliver the Gaol and Houses of Correction of Vagrants, Rogues and Vagabonds, and others, committed to the Session to answer for deserting their families, for breaches of the Peace, &c., &c.

To call over the Persons summoned to appear and serve on the Petty Jury.

To try Indictments against Prisoners.

To pass sentence on Prisoners convicted, in cases where sentences had not been passed immediately after conviction.

To hear Motions connected with the Calendar, and Motions for the discharge of Fines imposed on Jurymen and others.

To call the several parties bound on their Recognizances, to respite, continue, or discharge the same as the case may require, and to order summonses to be issued to those parties who do not appear to show cause why their respective Recognizances should not be estreated.

14. That immediately before the discharge of the Grand Jury, the Clerk of the Peace do call over the names of those persons who may be bound in Recognizances to prefer Bills of Indictment, or to give evidence thereon, and who have not appeared in pursuance of such Recognizances: and immediately after the discharge of the Grand Jury, the Court will order the discharge of the parties who may have been bound by Recognizances to appear and answer to such Indictments as should be preferred against them and against whom no Indictments shall have been preferred or found.

Persons failing to appear in pursuance of their Recognizances to prosecute or give evidence to be called, and Discharge of Persons bound by Recognizances to appear and answer.

15. That the Constables appointed to attend the Courts do maintain due order, prevent the passages to the Courts from being obstructed, and not suffer improper persons to intrude themselves into those places of the Courts which are exclusively appropriated for those who have business: —the Constables to be responsible to the Court for any and every neglect of duty in these particulars.

Constables appointed to attend the Courts to maintain due order.

NISI PRIUS COURT.

16. That the business of this Court be proceeded with in the order before set forth, (page 3), but in case the Court shall not be divided, the whole business of the Session will be transacted in the Crown Court.

Business in Nisi Prius Court.

17. That a List of the Appeals be fixed up in some conspicuous place near the outward door of the Court, in the Clerk of the Peace's Office, and in the room allotted for attending Witnesses, there to remain during the Session.

Lists of Appeals to be fixed up in the Clerk of the Peace's Office and in Witnesses Room.

ADJOURNED SESSIONS.

- Adjourned Sessions. 18. That when it may be necessary to have an adjournment of the Session, the particular business to be transacted at such adjournment (except it be confined to the administering the Oaths of Office) shall be advertised in the before-mentioned public Newspapers ; and no other business whatever (except the administering of such Oaths) shall be transacted at any such adjourned Session.

2.—APPEALS.

- Notice of Appeal. 19. That in every case of Appeal (except where otherwise provided for by Statute), fourteen clear days' Notice of Appeal at least shall be given, and such Notice shall be in writing, signed by the person or persons giving the same, or by his, her, or their Attorney, on his, her, or their behalf.

- Like notice and proof in respited Appeals, except when respite by consent. 20. That the like notice shall be given and proved in the case of a respite Appeal, unless such Appeal was respite by consent of parties, in which latter case, the production of the Record, to shew that such respite was by consent, shall be sufficient.

- Notices of Countermand. 21. That all Notices of countermand of Trials of Appeals shall be given in writing to the party, or parties, to whom the same ought to be given, or his, her, or their Attorney, or left at his, her, or their place of abode, on or before the Saturday in the week next preceding the Session week; otherwise such notice will be deemed insufficient.

22. That all Appeals (except those to be entered for the purpose of adjournment) shall be entered with the Clerk of the Peace before the Sitting of the Court on the first day of the Session, otherwise they will not be heard at such Session, and no appeals shall at any time be entered for adjournment unless by a special Order of the Court, on Motion to be made for that purpose.

23. That all Appeals be called on and tried in the order in which they are entered, with the exception of foreign Appeals which shall be tried first, if required by the Appellants. But such preference will not be allowed unless it be claimed at the time of entry.

24. That, subject to the last Order, all Appeals which have been entered and respite or adjourned from a preceding Session, shall be re-entered by the Clerk of the Peace as a matter of course, and stand at the head of the Appeal Paper in the order of their original entry.

25. That on entering Appeals against Poor or other Rates, or against any Valuation List of any Parish, a written Memorandum, containing, in words at length, the date of the Assessment or Valuation List appealed against, the names of the Magistrates or Members of the Assessment Committee, by whom it was allowed, the date of the allowance, and the name of the Appellant, shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace.

On entering Appeal against an Order of Removal, the original Order or a copy to be filed with the Clerk of the Peace, as also a copy of the Notice and grounds of Appeal and grounds of Removal.

In Appeals against Convictions Respondents to file Conviction on first day of Session.

26. That on the entry of every Appeal against an Order of Removal, the original Order, or a copy thereof, shall be filed by the Appellants with the Clerk of the Peace, and before the hearing of every Appeal, the Appellants shall also file with the Clerk of the Peace, a copy of the Notice and of the grounds of Appeal, and grounds of Removal respectively.

27. That in every Appeal against a conviction, the Respondents shall file the Conviction appealed against not later than the sitting of the Court on the first day of the Session at which such Appeal shall be intended to be tried.

3.—HIGHWAYS.

Clerk of the Peace to issue Process after Indictment found, &c.

28. That whenever the Inhabitants of any Parish, Tithing or Place, or any other person or persons shall be Indicted for not repairing their Highways or Bridges, the Clerk of the Peace shall, within Thirty days next after the first day of the Session at which such Indictment shall be found, make out process to the proper Officers, to the intent that due Notice and Summons be issued to the Defendants, for their appearance and pleading to the same at the then next Session.

Process of Distringas to issue when parties fail to appear.

29. That the party or parties so indicted and summoned shall appear and plead at the ensuing Session, and if they shall fail to appear and plead, process of Distringas shall issue, and such process shall be repeated at each and every subsequent Session, until the party shall have so appeared and pleaded—That forty shillings issues be levied on the first Distringas—£10 on the second—£20 on the third—and £50 on the fourth and every other Distringas ; and such Issues when levied shall be paid to such persons as the Court shall appoint Expenditors, to be by them expended in the repair of the Highway or Bridge so indicted, and to be accounted for to the Court at the time and in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

30. That if the party or parties indicted shall plead guilty or shall be convicted, the Court shall immediately give judgment and impose such fine as the nature of the case may require ; such fine to be paid to such persons as the Court shall appoint Expenditors to be accounted for by such Expenditors in manner hereinafter directed.

31. That upon Judgment being given, execution for levying the Sum awarded by such Judgment shall issue as a matter of course, unless the Court shall specially order a suspension thereof ; and execution shall likewise issue on the expiration of the time for which such suspension may be granted, unless the Court shall think fit to order a further suspension ; but no suspension of execution shall be granted in any case where the Defendant shall have omitted to appear and plead on the first summons, and suspension shall not be granted more than once, unless the Defendant shall produce due proof that all due diligence has been used, setting forth at the same time how far the repairs of the Highway or Bridge under process have been proceeded in, and further shewing good and sufficient cause why such repairs have not been completed, and in no case whatever shall execution be respite more than twice.

Process of Distringas, ad infinitum, to issue until proof made that Highway or Bridge is in repair.

32. That no Indictment for public Nuisances respecting Highways and Bridges shall be discharged until proof be made that such Highway or Bridge is in repair, and the Clerk of the Peace shall regularly cause process of Distringas, ad infinitum, to issue against the Inhabitants of the Parish, Tithing or Place, or person or persons indicted after execution on judgment until such proof shall be made. Forty shillings issues shall be levied on the first Distringas, and such issues be afterwards increased to £10 on the second, £20 on the third, and £50 on the fourth and every other Distringas. Such issues shall be paid to the persons whom the Court shall appoint to be Expenditors thereof, and shall be accounted for by such Expenditors at such time as the Court shall direct.

Proofs required of Highway or Bridge being in repair.

33. That the proof to be made of a Highway or Bridge being in repair, shall be in some or one of the following ways, and no other.

1st. By a Certificate of the Justice who has prosecuted by Indictment.

2nd. By a Certificate under the hands of two acting Justices of this County.

3rd. By a Certificate of one acting Justice and of one Expenditor appointed by the Court.

4th. By a Certificate of one such Justice and the evidence of one disinterested viva voce witness.

5th. By the viva voce evidence of two disinterested witnesses, in case due proof shall be made either that the Justices, who had undertaken to view such Highway or Bridge did not attend and view the same at the time by them appointed, or that application in writing had been made at least eight clear days before the Session to all the acting Justices then residing in the Division in which such Highway or Bridge may be situated, requesting them to appoint a day for viewing the same, and that all such Justices had refused or declined so to do.

34. That in all the four last mentioned cases, proof shall be made, to the satisfaction of the Court, that four clear days' notice in writing has been given to the Prosecutor of such Indictment as well of the time appointed for viewing the Highway or Bridge for the purpose of obtaining such Certificate, as of the intention to move the Court to discharge such Indictment upon the production of such Certificate, to the intent that the Prosecutor may object against the granting of such Certificate, if he shall so think fit, in the presence of the Justices or others who may view the same, at the time of such view, or may shew cause to the Court against the discharge of such Indictment.

In the four last cases, notice to be given to the Prosecutor as to viewing Bridge for obtaining Certificate, &c.

35. That in all cases such Certificate shall not only state that the said Highway, Bridge or Nuisance has been actually viewed by the person

Certificate to state that Highway, &c., is in repair, and likely so to continue. or persons certifying, and that such Highway or Bridge is then in repair or such Nuisance abated, but also that such Highway or Bridge is likely to continue in repair.

When two Distringases for £50 each have issued, Clerk of the Peace to apprise Expenditors, who are to account for same at the following Session.

36. That whenever two Distringases have issued for levying Issues of the amount of £50, the Clerk of the Peace shall, upon the issuing of a Distringas, for levying the third £50, give notice to the Expenditor or Expenditors, to render a written account of all and every sum and sums which he or they shall so have received, to and with Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Session of the Peace; and such notice shall be served on such Expenditor or Expenditors one month before the commencement of such last mentioned Session.

4.—JURORS.

No Juror to be excused from attending without reasonable cause.

37. That no person summoned to serve on Juries shall be excused from giving personal attendance without reasonable cause, to be allowed by the Court, which cause must be attested on the Oath of one credible Witness, and in failure of such reasonable cause being shewn, a fine will be imposed for non-attendance, which fine shall not be remitted or mitigated, except due cause be shewn in manner before mentioned.

Persons attending and ready to serve to be considered as having served.

38. That persons who being summoned to appear as Jurors shall attend the Sessions and be ready and willing then and there to serve shall be considered as having served, although in fact they may not have actually served.

39. That the several Hundreds and Liberties Hundreds furnishing Jurors for Sessions. shall furnish Jurors for the respective General Quarter Sessions according to the following arrangement:—

List of Hundreds.

For List of Hundreds, with the names of the Parishes and Places in each Hundred, see Appendix, No. 1.

Certificates of service at Sessions obtainable of Clerk of the Peace.

6 Geo. IV., cap. 50, secs. 41 and 42.

41. That every Grand and Petty Juryman shall receive from the Clerk of the Peace a Certificate of service, upon application and payment of one shilling, which will excuse him from serving at any Sessions for two years, but it will not excuse him from serving at the Assizes, neither will a Certificate from the Assizes excuse him from serving at the Sessions.

5.—NOTICE OF TRIAL.

On Indictment for not repairing Highway or Bridge, notice to be given to Prosecutor by Defendants of their intention to try.

42. That no Defendant shall be entitled to try any Issue hereafter to be joined upon any Indictment in this Court for the non-repair of any Highway or Bridge, unless it shall appear to the Court that such Defendant has given to the Prosecutor of such Indictment, notice in writing of his intention to try such issue, either personally, or by leaving the same at his last place of abode, at least eight clear days before the first day of such Session at which such Issue is intended to be tried.

Time of serving Notices.

43. That all Notices whatever which shall have been delivered or served before Nine o'clock in the morning or later than Nine o'clock at night, and also all Notices which shall have been served or delivered at whatever hour on a Sunday shall be deemed null and void.

6.—NUISANCE.

44. That previous to the discharge of any Indictments for Nuisances, the same notice shall be given as is directed to be given before the discharge of Indictments for not repairing Highways; and no Indictment for Nuisance shall be discharged unless such notice shall have been given and proof thereof made as aforesaid.

45. That the orders laid down respecting Highways shall be observed in respect of Nuisances, so far as they may be applicable.

7.—PRACTICE.

46. The party who begins, his Counsel or Advocate, shall be allowed (in the event of his opponent not announcing at the close of the case of the party who begins his intention to adduce evidence) to address the Court and Jury a second time at the close of such case, for the purpose of summing up the evidence; and the party on the other side, or his Counsel or Advocate, shall be allowed to open the case, and also to sum up the evidence, (if any) and the right to reply shall depend upon whether or not evidence has been adduced by the opposite party: Provided, however, that the proof of notices or other matters necessary to give a party a locus standi in Court, shall not be considered as a beginning of the case within the meaning of this rule; and that in all

Conduct of case. other particulars, not otherwise provided for, the course of proceeding and practice shall, as far as possible, be in accordance with the course of proceeding and practice observed and adopted by the Superior Courts of Common Law.

47. That it is expected that Counsel will in all cases address themselves exclusively to the Chairman, who is the proper and only organ of the Court, and from whom alone the opinions of the Court can be received as such.

Special case. 48. That whenever the Court shall think fit to reserve a point of Law for the opinion of the Court of Queen's Bench, the case shall be settled and signed by Counsel on each side, subject to the approval and revision of the Court.

8.—PROCESSES.

Time of issuing Process. 49. That within thirty days next after the first day of each Session, the Clerk of the Peace shall cause Processes or Warrants to be issued against all persons indicted at such Session—such Processes or Warrants to be directed to the proper officers, whose duty it may be to carry the same into execution, and such officers shall, upon the receipt of such Processes or Warrants, or within ten days thereafter, execute the same; and they and each of them shall return the same to the then next General Quarter Session.

When fine imposed for non-repair of Highway, and when money granted 50. That whenever any Fine shall be imposed on any Parish, Place, or Tithing in respect of the repair of Highways, and whenever any moneys shall be granted for the repair of any County Bridge, the Clerk of the Peace shall, within thirty days next after the first day of the Session at which such Fine shall have been imposed or money granted, give notice to each of the persons who may have been appointed by the Court to be the Expenditors of such fine or money, of such his appointment and also of the amount of such fine or money.

51. That the Clerk of the Peace do, at every General Quarter Session, deliver in open Court, an account of all Processes which shall have been issued out by him subsequent to the preceding Session, together with the dates of issuing the same, and the names of the officers to whom such Processes were so issued.

52. That all applications for Bench Warrants, returnable instanter, be made by Counsel, and supported by Affidavits, shewing the ground on which the application is made, e.g., whether the Defendant is likely to abscond, or not to be amenable to Justice without such Warrant being granted.

9.—ALLOWANCE TO PROSECUTORS AND WITNESSES.

53. That Prosecutors and Witnesses appearing under recognizance or subpoena, and claiming the expenses of prosecution and attendance by virtue of the provisions of the Statutes, upon application to the Court, be allowed, according to the rates hereinafter mentioned in Appendix, No. 2, provided that they attend in due time, pursuant to the conditions of their respective recognizances and subpœnas.

*Prosecutors,
&c., to be allowed in one prosecution
only.*

54. That no Prosecutor or Witness shall be allowed any sum of money whatever on more than one prosecution, except where it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Court, that he or she shall have been obliged to remain at the place of Trial another day or other days to give evidence on any second or other Trial, and that in such case an allowance may be made to him or her according to the length or duration of such additional attendance, and in the mode provided by the Regulations inserted in the said Appendix, No. 2.

Alphabetical List of Parishes to be furnished to the Clerk of Assize.

55. That the Clerk of the Peace do furnish the Clerk of Assize with an alphabetical List of the Parishes in this County, and their distances from the several Places of Trial, in order to the better observance of the regulations aforesaid.

Employment of Counsel and Attorney for Prosecutions.

APPENDIX, No. 10.

Form of Order for Payment of Expenses, and for trouble and loss of time, under the Juvenile Offenders' Act.—11 Vic., Cap. 82, and 13 & 14 Vic., Cap. 37.

Somersetshire } The Queen (on the Prosecution of (TO WIT.) , } against }

We
 and two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Somerset in Petty Sessions assembled at in the said County, before whom the said has been this day prosecuted or tried for an offence cognizable under the Statute "for the more speedy Trial and Punishment of Juvenile Offenders,"—having ascertained the amount which is reasonable and sufficient to reimburse the Prosecutor and the Witnesses for the Prosecution, the expenses they have severally incurred in attending before the examining Magistrate, and in otherwise carrying on the Prosecution, and as a Compensation for their trouble and loss of time therein, and the Allowances to be paid to the Constables and other Peace Officers for the apprehension and detention of the said and the Allowances to the Prosecutor, Witnesses and Constables for attending the said Petty Sessions (such Expenses not exceeding the sums allowed according to the Scale of Fees and Allowances authorized and settled by the Justices of the Peace of the said County in Quarter Sessions assembled with respect to preliminary inquiries before Justices in cases of Felony); Do hereby, under our hands, certify the amount of the Expenses, Compensation and Allowances to be the Sum of as thus particularized:—
